Local Badminton Club Still Lacks Support

The first few meetings of the local badminton club have not been too encouraging.

Those in charge are asking everyone who intend playing this year to make a special effort to be at the school auditorium on Thursday evening at 8 p.m.

The club cannot function without support — so give it a chance!

Let's see if we can't get some more members.

Numbers Drawn For Carnival Prizes

Last Saturday marked the end of another successful shopping carnival and merchants and customers all seem to have lined up the smiling side of the coin — in other words the big percentage of people were satisfied with what was offered and what was received.

To date only two prizes have been claimed, one of them unofficial as the ticket has not as yet been presented at prize headquarters.

The second prize, a Lazy Boy Chair, was claimed by Mrs. S. Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Schumaker and Wayne motored to Calgary last Friday and while there visited with the former's sister, Joyce, and the new arrival, Mrs. S. Cole.

Mrs. Thomas Martin and Robert were weekend visitors with their daughter and son-in-law, Heather Amos.

A large crowd gathered at the hall Saturday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Shiels, the occasion being their silver wedding anniversary.

Next meeting of Lone Pine W.I. will be held at the home of Mrs. Chris Ehret on November 13th.

SAME OFFICERS TO HEAD CURLING CLUB

Guess the curling bag hasn't been set, but the annual meeting held in the arena last Friday was very poorly attended.

The same officers who held the reins last season will be at the helm. They are: President, Herb Sinclair; vice-president, Cliff Sorenson; second vice-president, Irvan Klein; secretary, Fred Evans.

Committees will consist of: membership, J. Woods; drawmaster, C. Sorenson; memorial centre representative, A. Allen.

Services were held in Jacques' Funeral Home, Calgary, at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, and Rev. D. K. Walker officiating. Interment followed in Queen's Park cemetery.

Westcott Senior W.I. To Elect New Officers

Westcott Senior W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Jack Robertson on Friday, Nov. 1st. Miss Helen Howard, district economist, and 11 members and nine visitors were present. Roll call was answered with "A Health Hint."

Miss Howard's topic was "Household Efficiency."

A report was given of the United Appeal's final meeting; the financial statement was given and will appear in The Pioneer as soon as all accounts are settled.

Miss Fern Eckstrand, a November bride-elect, was presented with a gift from the members.

The annual supper for members and their families will be held this year on November 29 at 6:30 p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Gaudin.

The December meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Burr Tugle and members are asked to note that the meeting will start at 1:30 p.m. as it is election of officers and may be a lengthy meeting.

Remember, again — the life you save with this precious blood may be your own, or one you love dearly — maybe someone you've never known or will know. What difference? It may keep one more heart fluttering — a heart that can only be kept moving by your contribution of blood.

Ballet Corps To Appear Here

Didsbury high school students' union will present the Calgary Junior Ballet Corps in the school auditorium on Friday, Nov. 8 at 8 p.m.

There will be a cast of 24 with three sparkling numbers: Jean Murdoch Simpson and Sybil Rogers will be ballet mistresses.

The Calgary Junior Ballet Corps was incorporated in 1955. The group is formed of children taking courses in ballet under the standards set by the Royal Academy of Dancing, London, England. The prime purpose of the formation of this company is to promote and maintain interest in ballet.

Many talented children have no outlet for their training; thus it was felt that by giving ballet students an opportunity to participate actively as a group in a ballet company, interest and study in the appreciation of this art would be encouraged and developed here.

Headline numbers on the show will include "Night and Day," "Country Fair," and "The Shoes Which Were Danced To Pieces."

Make it a point to attend — your money and time will not be wasted.

Legion Auxiliary Plan Dance and Turkey Supper

At a meeting of the Didsbury Canadian Legion Auxiliary held Saturday, October 24, plans were made for a dance to be held at Lone Pine hall on Friday, Nov. 8th.

Plans were also made for the turkey supper to be held in the school auditorium on November 11, from 5:30 to 8:00 p.m.

After the regular meeting a zone meeting was held at which Mrs. Rita Gilman was elected zone commander for a two-year term. Delegate members were present from Crossfield, Carstairs, Bowden and Didsbury.

Excuse Please

That's what the boss told me to tell the road crew (and the city fathers) for the smash he took at them on the editorial page this week as regards fixing the roads up a bit, especially the one leading from the hospital. He says someone must have been reading his mind because he wrote the job on Sunday and guess what — the road crew was hard at work Monday morning.

Again, excuse please, for the boss — keep on foolin' him that way.

Exciting styling changes that enhance the appearance from every angle mark the Oldsmobile Super "88" for 1958. Oldsmobile's new "mobile" look is evident in the entirely re-designed body, new rear quarter panels, a new front end with recess-type grille and four-beam headlamps, one-piece rear window with greater glass area and new rear deck and roof. The decorative trim on the side panels accentuates the length, flowing lines and low silhouette of the new Oldsmobile. Striking interior styling features a new "star-lite" headlining of sponge vinyl in light colours to set off the "fashion-flair" upholstery, offered in a variety of colours and fabrics.

Notes From D.A.

By HOWARD J. FULCHER

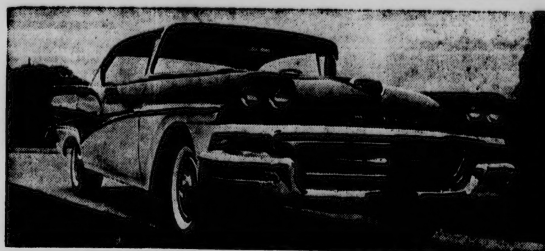

Livestock require minerals in their ration to make full use of their other feeds, maintain their health and reproduce healthy young.

In dairy cattle there is an additional requirement for milk production. Generally only four minerals are likely to be deficient if a fair variety of feeds are fed. These minerals are salt, iodine, calcium and phosphorus. Salt can be fed at the rate of one pound in 100 pounds of the concentrate mixture, in addition have salt available free choice, either in block or loose form. Iodine can be supplied in sufficient quantities with iodized salt in most cases.

Calcium (limestone) is often lacking, especially if the bulk of the feed is grass and cereal hays. Phosphorus (bone meal) is also often lacking, when high levels of grain are being fed the deficiency is not great. These last two minerals can be fed in combination about two pounds in 100 pounds concentrate, or they may be fed free choice.

In beef cattle a mixture of 1 part iodized salt, 1 part bonemeal, 1 part limestone, will be satisfactory for the breeding herd. Feeder cattle will require salt and the other two minerals but the requirement for phosphorus is less when grain consumption is high. A mixture of 2 parts salt and 1 part (1/2 bonemeal, 1/2 limestone) will be satisfactory. These can be fed free choice in both cases.

In swine, mineral deficiencies are noticeable in the performance of hogs. They require iron, iodine, salt, calcium and in various amounts at different ages. Young suckling pigs require iron, reduced iron can be purchased in powder, paste or liquid form, treat pigs at 3 days, 10 days and 17 days of age. Iodized salt supply normal requirements except pregnant sows; they require additional iodine in their ration. Calcium and salt are required in about equal parts, a mixture of 1 part salt, 1 part calcium (limestone) fed free choice is satisfactory, or this mixture may be added to the feed at the rate of 2 lbs. to 100 lbs. of grain.

Meeting To Discuss Egg Marketing

The proposed Alberta Egg Marketing Plan will be the subject for discussion at a public meeting to be held in the Lutheran Church basement at Didsbury, on Nov. 14 at 8:00 p.m.

Mr. J. T. Bishop of Three Hills will be the guest speaker.

During mid-November all registered poultry producers will be provided with a mail ballot on which they may support or reject the proposed Egg Marketing Plan.

It is most important that all producers are acquainted with the facts and the importance of this issue, and that they cast their vote.

A registered producer means any farmer having 20 or more laying hens and who, through the recent enumeration, has had his name placed on the registered producers' list.

The Egg Marketing Plan, to carry, must have a 51 per cent majority of the registered producers. This is required by an Act passed by the Alberta legislature.

All major farm co-operatives, the Farmers' Union of Alberta and the Alberta Federation of Agriculture, are supporting the Alberta Egg Marketing Committee, which has been set up for the purpose of providing basic information regarding the Egg Marketing Plan.

A little bundle of pink came into our house,
And we had to go around
as quiet as a mouse;
We could not dance
across the kitchen floor,
Nor slam when we closed
the cellar door.

We could not listen to
our favorite live,
Because Debbie was supposed to sleep 'till five;
She is such a cute little

But I was hoping it would

Her hair is dark,
and her eyes are blue,
She sleeps all day,
and all night too;
We all love her and she's
as good as gold.
Well, that's the story
I've been told.

Now don't get excited,

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE

Many perfect, unselfish nature as the spiritual child of God will be emphasized in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" at Christian Science services Sunday.

Keynoting the Scriptural readings is the following passage to be read from Genesis (1:27): "So God created man in his own image, in the image of God created he him; male and female created he them."

A correlative passage which refers to this record of creation will be read, "From Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy (516:27-29): "To emphasize this momentous thought, it is repeated that God made man in his own image, to reflect the divine Spirit."

The Golden Text is from Psalms (112:4): "Unto the upright there ariseth light in the darkness."

people compete in the oil business

Did you know there are more than 10,000 people engaged in the search for oil in Canada? We know it, because we run into plenty of them each time we try to lease promising oil lands.

Did you know there are hundreds of skilled chemists and engineers in Canada's 42 refineries? We know it, because our own technical people have to work hard to stay ahead of the others in producing better products at lower cost.

Did you know Canada's oil companies employ thousands of salesmen to market their products? We know it, because every day our own sales people are competing with salesmen from other companies.

Canada's hundreds of oil companies wage vigorous competition. The result is increased efficiency, and benefits to the consumer.

Cash Advances On Farm Grain !!!

The government's cash advance legislation is moving through parliament with little opposition and should become operative very soon. Though cash advances will solve neither the grain marketing nor the farmer's "cost price" problems, they will help to ease some of the financial difficulties prairie farmers find themselves in as a result of limited delivery opportunities this autumn. The plan seems to have met with the approval of the large majority of western farmers and farm organizations.

The plan provides for advances of 50 cents a bushel for wheat, 20 cents for oats and 35 cents a bushel for barley, to be made on the basis of a quota of 6 bushels per specified acre. Deliveries of grain made before application for an advance would be deducted, except for the 100 unit quota, from the advance allowance.

The maximum overall advance for any one permit holder is $300. The advances are to be repaid from one-half of proceeds of deliveries of wheat, oats and barley (except under unit quota) which are to be deducted by Wheat Board agents.

The 1957-58 permit book of those taking advances will be endorsed and subsequent permit books to the same permit holder, if necessary, until the advance is repaid.

Advances are to be interest free. The federal treasury will bear the interest on advances. Elevator operating companies have agreed to bear 10 per cent of any losses with a maximum liability of one-quarter of 1 per cent of total advances by

GRAIN CASH ADVANCES APPROVED

Rejecting a last-minute amendment attempt by the C.C.F., the Commons Thursday gave unanimous final approval to the government's scheme for cash advances on prairie farm-stored grain.

Agriculture Minister Harkness said the measure will come into effect just as soon as it has received Senate approval. That likely will be within a few days.

It received Commons passage only after considerable opposition criticism about some of the fine print in the bill.

HOW MUCH TAX CUT ???

The Conservatives' promised tax cuts are expected soon, reports Michael Barkway in The Financial Post.

If Finance Minister Fleming decides to throw his hat over the windmill and take no thought for the morrow, he could give us large cuts without unbalancing this year's budget.

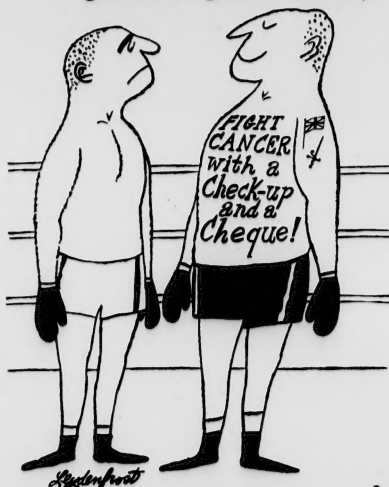

After paying increased pensions from November to March, he has a prospective surplus this year of around $100 million.

Many Conservatives may be tempted to blow the whole $100 million surplus in five months' tax deductions and dam the consequences for future years.

This would be very attractive politically (though irresponsible financially) if an election could be held before Mr. Fleming had to present a 1958 budget.

But the election is not likely to be before June; and that means a Conservative budget before it, in which case Mr. Fleming at least may want to approach tax-cutting rather cautiously.

Hallowe'en passed fairly quietly here with the exception of a few isolated cases that will certainly call for court action if the hammerheads responsible are apprehended. The most flagrant misconception of fun was executed by a group who placed oil drums on the main C.P.R. line. At least one last train came into contact with them and had to back up to get disentangled. The dopes that pulled this deal must have left their brains at home that night (if they ever had any). If caught they'll not have to worry too much about where their next meal is coming from. The food will be supplied by the law — from behind bars!

Just For The Record . . .

It's all over now—we speak of the liquor vote—and listening to the mumbblings from the provincial capital, we're still very much in the dark as to what way the ball is going to bounce. We still say a lot of money was spent in different ways on the campaign, but what for we wouldn't know. The man who cracks the whip in Edmonton, the fella who advised his listeners to vote "no", will still have the last word.

Just For The Record . . .

Road conditions seem to be the pet beef in these parts this year—and what else could you expect? You could lose your car, and maybe your life, in some of the gaping holes on the road from town to the hospital. 1938 A Fateful Year

1938 A FATEFUL YEAR
By H. YOUNG
F.U.A. VICE-PRESIDENT

The year 1938 may well be a critical and decisive one for Canadian farmers. For some time now we have been slipping, and disaster is not far off.

It is now ten years since price control was removed in Canada. During that time farm costs, including taxes, have doubled, while farm income remains about the same. In fact, all grain prices are lower than in 1947. These higher unit costs have been met by greater efficiency on the part of farmers, including the rapid mechanizing of the farm.

During these ten years the higher earnings in other occupations have drained all surplus labor from the farm. This includes many efficient and valuable farm operators who saw greater opportunities elsewhere. This exodus from the farm has forced mechanization regardless of the fact that the price of farm machinery is completely out of line with the price of farm products. To the farmer of the nineteen fifties, it has been a case of "mechanize or quit". Many farmers have been forced by circumstances to assume a new, heavy debt burden for mechanization. The policy of the Alberta Government of forcing farmers to pay all the costs of rural electrification has added materially to this debt burden.

During this ten year period we have been blessed with much better than average crop yields. In fact, the grain surplus of today has arisen from that fact alone. It is obvious to anyone acquainted with the facts that reducing the surplus (though desirable) will not solve our problems. What we need is a better relationship between farm costs and farm prices, or in other words "Parity Prices" for Agriculture.

Securing that new price relationship is the job to which we, as farmers, must address ourselves if we are to survive and enjoy the benefits of modern civilization. In Canada we are living in a very complex and highly organized society. All other economic groups are to see that their interests are promoted. Protection of various kinds is given the different interests; most industries have tariff protection or subsidies, as in the case of gold mining. Labor has laws to protect its right to organize, to bargain collectively and even strike. The teaching profession, once one of the poor relation of professions, has raised its status far above Agriculture.

In the case of all these different professions and industries we find one thing in common. The people engaged in them are all strongly and effectively organized and they use their organization to the limit. In the complex society of today, ordinary individuals cannot do much alone. Organization is the modern technique for developing the collective strength of an economic group to promoting their interests. Today the good things of modern life are divided largely according to the organized strength of each economic group in our society. Those ineffectively organized get what is left, which is not much. That is where Canadian Agriculture stands today.

Now the question is "Where do we go from here?" Shall we go forward to a better deal for the people on the land or drag along on a standard of living before all other economic groups in Canada? Actually the position of the Canadian farming groups is relatively much worse today than in 1947. All other groups in our economy have improved their position. Why not Agriculture?

There are two reasons for this. First, as a class we work too hard. No other class in Canada works as hard as they did 20 years ago. The farmer works far harder than he did then. Today by using modern equipment and working 12 to 18 hours a day, we have literally worked ourselves out of a job. We now have surplus in every line of farm produce and no effective control over our prices. This ruinous policy makes us poorer every year. All other economic groups in our Canadian society have reduced their hours and improved their relative position. We farmers have increased our hours and output and are relatively worse off.

The second reason for our position is that we have failed to take full advantage of organization. True we have unions, and good work has been done through them, but we have only scratched the surface here. We have complained loud and long about our economic woes, but what have we done to change them? How can we expect to get our share of the national income unless we are organized as effectively as these interests who take it from us? Who can speak for agriculture until we get together and speak with one voice?

Long observation of the farm scene has convinced me that there will be no solution of the farm problem until we organize completely and effectively. We must control our own business and have a say in setting our own prices. Only an organized people can do that.

The time is critical. Every year more of our best people leave the farm. Lack of proper returns is causing misuse of land with subsequent deterioration. The family farm is in danger. The future of agriculture is at stake. For those who have eyes to see, it is surely organize or quit.

We have a new government at Ottawa. They need advice and guidance on their policy. The policy they adopt may be vital to our welfare. Who can give them the direction that they need unless we are fully organized? Other groups will present their views. Farming cannot afford to lag behind.

Then again we have a tremendous public relations job to do with the other groups in our nation. Less than 20 per cent of Canadian people live on the farm. Many of the urban people do not understand the position of the agricultural section. We need their support for measures to better our condition. We will never get it unless the need is explained to them. Only an organization representing all the farmers can do this job. And it is a vital one.

The 1937 harvest is now largely over. On the average, the crop is not too good, yet getting it harvested was important. However, in the long run the job still to be done this fall will be far more important. Across the prairies next month the harvest of membership in the Farm Unions will help to determine our standard of living for the future. It will pay us all to help as best we can, to gather in that harvest.

Organization is the modern technique. Agriculture cannot succeed without it. To those who are tired of the struggle, I would urge you to take hold once more. Quitting never wins, and we have too much at stake to quit now.

In 1938 farmers need 100 per cent organization and full use of that organization. If we do not stand up for our own proper interests no one else will do it for us.

FALL CULTIVATION: This practice is beneficial in many ways. If you have noticed the presence of grasshoppers in your area during the past summer, the likelihood is that there may be quite an infestation of "hoppers" next year.

Shallow fall cultivation with a one-way or discer will bring many egg pods to the surface and expose them to desiccation by wind and sun. This will also aid in reducing wheat stem sawflies, where they are present. Fall cultivation done on stubble grounds where wild oats are present, or even other annual weeds, is to be recommended.

Even if they do not germinate anymore this fall they will be ready to grow the first thing in the spring and may beat by several weeks, weed seeds that are not turned until spring; thus enabling you to go ahead with further culture and getting seed grain into the ground earlier than would otherwise be possible, had you not worked the land in the fall.

This same shallow fall tillage will also mix the stubble and straw with the soil and start the process of decomposition. Straw is valuable material and wherever possible it should be worked into the top soil to enrich it and provide fibre so essential to a good soil.

RELAX RULES FOR DIVIDENDS

Relaxation of residence qualifications under the Alberta Oil and Gas Royalty Dividend Act was announced last week.

Provincial Treasurer Hinman said that effective for this year Albertans are allowed a six-consecutive-month absence. The original legislation allowed only a 90-day absence.

Mr. Hinman said that many Albertans not eligible for dividends under the original regulation, now can qualify.

Despite the relaxation, the government expects the $11,000,000 fund to take care of all those added to the eligible list.

Of the $11,000,000, approximately $9,500,000 has been given out since applications for the $20-a-person dividend began on September 1.

Mr. Hinman said that at present applications are just "dribbling in."

AGRICULTURAL EXTENSION SERVICE

The Department of Agriculture of the Government of Alberta maintains a Province-wide Extension Service which is constantly concerned in bringing information to farm families and assisting them to apply it.

District Agriculturalists and District Home Economist, who call on farmers throughout the Province. These highly qualified workers provide direct, friendly assistance to farm people in planning their operations so that they may achieve the maximum in profit and satisfaction from their efforts. This is not done by arbitrarily telling them what they should do, but rather by bringing to them basic and scientific information and encouraging them to apply it in reaching better decisions.

Some farm families need only to be told of the latest research developments, while in others there is a need to consider a more or less complete revision of their operations.

The principal methods used are:
1. Supervision by field staff of the organization and operation of 4-H Clubs.
2. Provision of information by field staff with respect to specific problems, including better sires and seed.
3. Provision of general information through the medium of short courses, radio, press, etc.
4. Provision of specialists to assist farm families with more complicated problems.
5. Encouragement to farm families to solve their own problems by group discussion, with Extension workers present to provide information.

The Alberta Department has the highest ratio in Canada of Home Economics to number of occupied farms and was the first to have a specialist in home designing. The average number of occupied farms per District Agriculturalist is about 1900, and per District Home Economist about 3500.

PROVINCIAL SCHOOLS OF AGRICULTURE AND HOME ECONOMICS

The Schools of Agriculture and Home Economics provide practical training to young men and women who intend to make careers in modern farming and home-making. Each school consists of modern dormitories, class rooms, laboratories, shops and barns. A farm is operated in conjunction with each school to provide practical instruction.

SCHOOLS are located at Olds, Vermilion and Fairview. The term is from late October to early April. The course for boys is one or two terms, depending on qualifications. In 1955, the course for girls became a one-year course.

Boys taking the two-year course in agriculture must have passed their 17th birthday by December 31st of the year in which they apply. For all other courses the minimum age (at registration) is 16 years. Both boys and girls must have grade 9 standing for entrance; however, consideration is given to older students who may have lower grades.

There are no tuition fees for residents of Alberta.

Approximate yearly cost for board and room, text books and classroom materials is about $275.00.

AGRICULTURAL COURSES

The object of the course is to equip young men with practical knowledge necessary for farm operations. It includes:
Plant husbandry—animal husbandry.
Farm Mechanics (including carpentry, blacksmithing and welding).
Farm Management.
Poultry—dairying—horticulture.

The course in science shows the application of science in farming practices. English and public speaking are studied.

HOME ECONOMICS COURSES

While the course in Home Economics allows considerable time for the study of foods, clothing and home management, other subjects include typing, bookkeeping, English, horticulture, public speaking, poultry and home nursing.

Special laboratories are maintained for the study of Home Economics. The Alberta Government courses in Agriculture and Home Economics not only provide valuable training in these specific subjects but, as well, furnish students with experiences in living which will serve them well throughout their lives.

THE Homemakers

By HELEN HOWARD
District Home Economist

Hello Homemakers:-

All of us should know what we are looking for when we buy meat. Here are some of the characteristics of good meat:

1. Flecks of fat all through the fibres indicates tenderness and flavor.

2. Thin connective tissue means a tender cut; thick tissue, a tough one.

3. Meat well ripened, or hung some time after slaughter, is more tender than freshly killed meat.

4. Fresh odor and no dark dry edges or spots.

Beef:- Bright red color, moist juicy surface when freshly cut, firm, fine-grained muscle, dry, crumbly suet, white in color, thick solid edge of straw-colored fat.

Pork:- Firm white flesh with a pink tinge, clear white fat.

For excellent information on better food buying, send for our pamphlet, "Buy by Grade."

Flowering Bulbs:- These magnificent hyacinths, daffodils, narcissus, tulips, crocuses, etc., should be ordered now for

TRAIN OF THOUGHT !!!

Bob was visiting an Alberta friend who wanted Bob to meet an Indian with a remarkable memory. Bob asked the Indian what he had for breakfast July 12, 1949.

"Eggs," replied the Indian.

"Bob," said Bob, "everybody has eggs for breakfast."

Two years later he saw the same Indian on another trip west. Bob raised his hand and said, "How."

"Scrambled," replied the Indian.

winter forcing. In the cold wintry nights of January through to April spring flowers can brighten up your home.

Here's how:- Put these bulbs in pots - in a cold, dark place and keep them at a temperature of around 40 deg. F.

The earth must be kept moist - but not soaked or the plants will rot. These two ingredients, coldness and dark will insure the shoots coming through to about two or three inches. This generally takes about two months. These plants are then ready for moving to the light and warm room. Caution - intense direct sunlight is not good, rather daylight. Nothing brings delight and charm to the winter living room than fresh spring flowers.

Catalogues for bulbs can be obtained from: The Holland Bulb Gardens, 40 Darnmouth Road, Toronto 9, Ontario, or Ferncliff Bulb Gardens, Hatzig, B.C.

Should We Try To Fly So High ? ? ?

THE CALGARY ALBERTIAN says: Sputnik's big new brother acquired an unofficial name within minutes after first details of its launching was reported. Because of the live dog aboard, it was promptly dubbed "Muttnik."

The canine space pioneer is a Laika, a Russian breed resembling the spitz or pomeranian. The breed, with pointed ears and thick fluffy hair, is related to Siberian huskies, but smaller.

There was doubt that a dog could survive very long without drinking water. One expert said that the Russian effort to bring the dog back to earth might be set for about the time the water runs out.

Soviet scientists said the dog is travelling in style. They said the animal is in an air-conditioned hermetically sealed compartment with a food supply.

The dog has been trained by the Pavlov theory of conditional reflexes to feed itself only when an automatic bell rings inside the satellite, the Communist Party newspaper L'Unita claimed in Rome.

United States scientists were not so quick to comment on the second satellite launching.

In Cambridge, Mass., however, a key scientist in the "Operation Moonwatch" said the Russians may be able to send a rocket to the moon within the next week.

The launching of Russia's second satellite means another drop for American prestige in Asia.

Muttnik proves to Asians that the first Russian satellite was no scientific freak. It means that Russia will have more respect for the Soviet Union, says a Tokyo correspondent.

LIGHT YOUR WAY WITH BIBLE STUDY

In these days, when an ever increasing number of the world's leading thinkers are certain that unless a remedy is found for the evils which afflict mankind, the human race is doomed to self-destruction, it is of paramount importance to remember the words of King Solomon: "Righteousness exalteth a nation, but sin is a reproach to any people."

Many formulas are advocated to bring peace. But the entire question hinges on the one old fundamental problem: the moral problem. It is the old problem, though possibly in a new guise, but still the same old problem: namely that of evil. It has to do with the nature of man with his inherent characteristics, his inclinations, his desires, his passions, and his values. A formula for peace which overlooks or ignores this problem is doomed to failure, as history demonstrates all too clearly and tragically.

Man's inherent egoism results in self-worship and self-indulgence. The Prophet Isaiah put his finger on this problem: "The ox knoweth his owner, and the ass his master's crib, but Israel doth not know. My people doth not consider."

Jesus, who had perfect understanding on human nature said: "Out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies." One does not have to look far to see the seeds of strife and war: sending up a bloody plant.

St. Paul sums it all up: "We all have sinned and come short of the glory of God." This, then, is the basic truth we must remember as we this coming week celebrate Remembrance Day. The evil is in us. In everyone of us. The remedy for it all is summed up by Jesus: "Except ye repent, ye shall likewise perish."

If we desire a new world order, if we would diminish the possibility of war, if we would remove crime and vice and violence - we must go to the source of all trouble - the heart. It must be changed through the Word of God and the Spirit of Christ. And then, and then only, can we live in peace.

Remembrance Day !!

To the people everywhere,
Let's pause two minutes at 11.
And send out a short and silent prayer
For all the brave ones who died over there.

Let's remember the boys who
in Flanders Field lay,
And wear a Flanders' poppy
on this Remembrance Day:
So that if they can see us
from above,
They will know they are in our thoughts and have our love.

Let's remember the sailors who on the high seas did roam.
And gave their lives so we might live in peace at home:
Also remember the airmen,
who the fighter planes did fly;
Who lost their lives so that we would not all die.

Let's not forget the foot soldier,
who made it on his own;
Let's remember the fellows in those tanks,
Who never did ask for a vote of thanks.

Let's not forget the nurses,
dressed in their white,
Who gave their lives to help us
win the long, long fight;
The doctors, too, should be in the hall of fame,
For their part in helping the wounded and relieve their pain.

Let's remember, too, those that are left behind,
The lame, the sick, and
also the blind;
We can show them their sacrifice was not in vain,
By helping the hospitals that care for the sick and the lame.

Let's remember the mothers of sons who went afar
And paid the supreme sacrifice
in those bloody wars;
Also the wives and sweethearts who lost their all
So that this country
should not fail.

Remember us, O Lord,
upon this special day,
And give us everlasting peace,
we pray:
Make all wars throughout
the world, to cease,
Until the coming of
The Prince of Peace.

(Signed) E. Coombes

THE HIGH RIVER TIMES says of the satellite race... they'll have to have a moon to show their supremacy. And the moons will get bigger and so faster and faster.
The Russian moon is reported to have said "beep-beep" as it shuffled along. The U.S. moon will probably say "Hi kid!" and the British moon "Cheerio."

It will likely be awhile before any uplifting messages come our way. In this new world of many moons, one can't help but concern for the dignity and eminence of Luna, the original moon, who has been travelling her undeviating course for aeons. She controls the tides, the sowing and planting, the rain and drought — no end of responsibility.

If people are going to be lunatic they are that way in the full of the moon. And now with a whole litter of lesser moons in the sky will Luna be able to maintain her prestige?

It won't be surprising if scientists decide that Luna is entirely too old fashioned, and liquidate her in favor of the choicer creation of man.

SO TRUE !!!

A man doesn't mind extending himself when it comes to patting himself on the back.

Service Board Plan Coyote Control

The regular meeting of the Agricultural Service Board of the Municipal District of Mountain View was held Wednesday, October 30.

It was decided to carry out a modified program of coyote control with the use of 1080 poison during the winter months. This type of control proved very effective last year.

Doctor Bell, veterinarian, has taken up residence in Carstairs and will be taking care of the Bang's Vaccination in the southern part of the Municipal District. Dr. Anderson of Olds will continue to cover the northern part.

The field supervisor will attend a weed conference to be held at Victoria, November 26th and 27th.
The board found it necessary to take over operations of the following lands in accordance with the Act by way of an Order of Reclamation:

N.W. 34-32-29-W4th
S. 1/2 of S.W. 24-32-1-Wth
Portion N. 1/2 23-32-29-W4th
S. 1/2 34-32-2-W5th

These lands will be farmed under supervision of the Board for a period of five years, in an attempt to eradicate the serious weed condition now prevailing.

(From Our Own Correspondent)

Mrs. M. Finlay was a guest over the weekend in the home of her daughter, Mrs. D. M. Taylor. It was the occasion of Mr. Taylor's birthday, and faculty and students joined in wishing him many happy returns of the day. Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Willis, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lancaster of Calgary were guests in the home on Sunday. The latter is a sister of Mr. Taylor.

It is a great pleasure indeed to have Rev. R. P. Dimer as a guest in the college for the past two weeks. Today he leaves for the ministers convention held in Cadzow, where he will be one of the guest speakers. Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. President Taylor and Mr. Waldon are also attending this convention.

We feel that the flu bug has flown away. Students and faculty members are in action again and classes will resume their former attendance and interest.

Mrs. Lloyd Stauffer is back in the kitchen. The Stauffers have moved into their new location in town during the past week and will be residing here now.

We are glad to hear that the Choral Society of Didsbury, that functioned so well the past several years, will come into being again. We know that Mr. Carpenter, the director, will be happy to welcome you to its numbers and enjoy the wonderful time they have singing old and new songs. If you sing come.

The students have organized their groups again this year. The A.S.B. president is Arnold Dies, the senior president, Ormond Sherick; junior president, Addie Takanaka; Louise Nagel; social recreation chairman, Mervin Traub. The Annual editor must still be appointed upon the resignation of the one who had been appointed last year. These organizations function throughout the year and each group is well organized with faculty sponsors to assist them with their problems.

It was decided at a recent faculty meeting that "Open House" be do invite the public for this occasion and if you have not attended before, make this year when you shall do so. You will want to see out renovated chapel, and other improvements that have been made.

Rev. Bob Simpson has taken up his teachings in Missions in the College. Every week or two he brings with him a film on the subject of Missions and this week showed the film of John Wesley. We appreciate his illuminative chapel each week as he comes to us each Tuesday.

Now honeymooning in the U.S.A. and later in Madden where they will take up residence is the former Miss Clea Umback R. N. and her husband Ray Hagerty. The couple were recently married in Cremona United Church. Rev. A. Magee officiated for the double ring ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of emerald satin, beautiful in a crown headress and a fingertip veil and carried a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her brother Verdun Umback. Attending the bride was her sister Mrs. M. McBain, wearing a waltz length rose gown, and two flower girls Sheryl and Brenda McBain wearing contrasting colors of green and yellow.

Former District Minister Dies At Red Deer

A prominent figure in the Anglican ministry of Central Alberta, Canon A. D. Currie died Sunday, October 29, in Red Deer hospital at the age of 74.

During his years in the ministry Canon Currie worked mostly in the rural parishes of Alberta. The late Canon Currie is well known in this district, having had under his charge for a number of years the parishes of Didsbury, Hartman and Oils.

He retired in 1954 and after a brief residence at Five Lake he and Mrs. Currie moved to Red Deer in 1955.

Besides his widow, surviving are two daughters, Mrs. E. P. Humphreys, Calgary, and Ruth of Red Deer, and two grandsons.

REPENTANCE

A soldier asked the chaplain: "Is it right for any person to profit by the mistakes of others?"

"Certainly not."

The soldier brightened, and held out his hand. "Then perhaps you'll return the dollar I gave you last June for marrying me."
